A practical essential with a clean, modern edge, Clip Card Holders keep signage secure and clearly presented across any service style. Designed with a simple clip mechanism and a variety of materials and finishes, this collection offers an easy way to display cards with stability and understated style from buffet lines to tabletop settings.

The organic C-shaped swirl of this stainless steel card holder is eye-catching and uber contemporary. It’s stylishly unconventional, and the attached alligator clip elevates your signage so it can be seen from across the dining room. If you’re looking for a card holder that makes a statement, look no further. Your guests will love the serpentine curves of this artfully functional piece, guaranteed.
