If you want to be known for your pizza, we've got the solution. Our rectangular mesh pizza screens allow for maximum air ventilation, producing perfectly browned and baked crust throughout. Standard pans simply cannot match this effect! Plus, all our screens are constructed of durable 14 gauge, 1.5 mm heavy-weight aluminum to further ensure even heat distribution. Use it as a cooling rack for extra versatility!

With an length of 11" and width of 16", this rectangular pizza screen will have your guests craving more of your flawlessly crisp, golden pizza crusts. Unlike traditional pizza pans, this screen features a mesh design that allows for maximum air circulation. This means you can say goodbye to soggy crusts, and hello to crusts that are evenly browned and baked throughout. The durable 14 gauge, 1.5 mm heavy-weight aluminum further facilitates even heat distribution, and is rust, corrosion, and warping resistant for long-term commercial usage. Designed with versatility in mind, this screen fits half-size bun pans for baking bread, pastries, and desserts. Plus, it can also be used as a cooling rack. Use this screen at your pizzeria, restaurant, diner, bakery, or hotel kitchen. Hand wash only using aluminum-safe detergent. Note: this size is not available in a seamless construction.
