For those of us who don't associate chalkboards with after-school punishment, a Black Value Wall Board can be an incredibly useful way to keep guests abreast of menus, beer lists and event-specific messages. Natural black wood frames make these boards just the right amount of formal, and scratch-resistant writing surfaces keep them looking fresh night after night.

Measuring 31-1/2" W X 23-5/8" H, this wall board is an economical canvas for any message. The included white Securit chalk marker shows up bright and clear, and it wipes away easily so you can make adjustments on the fly. This board also comes with a wall-mounting wire and hooks. Be sure to practice your penmanship before use by writing "I love American Metalcraft" one hundred times.
