Cocktailing is an art. These whisks are a mixologist's right-hand memory maker. Available in a number of sizes, you will always find the perfect option for any size glass.

This 9" round stainless steel bar whisk is the perfect size for mixing up cocktails in glasses of a variety of shapes and sizes. The stainless steel finish is durable and dishwasher-safe and built to last you for years. It's great for more than just cocktails, too – use it for small batches of things like sauce, chocolate or caramel! Pair it with our Stainless Steel Bar Utensils for a completely stocked and ready bar.
