There are few more iconic forms of restaurant signage than the sandwich board. This tabletop mini sandwich board takes that classic look and brings it up-to-date, and down-to-size—6" x 9-3/4", to be exact. Use chalk on either side to the board to playfully announce daily specials, drink deals and menu updates directly at the table where guests can't miss them. Plus, it wipes down easily, so you can update it frequently. And its sturdy base means it can handle busy service without falling down on the job.
