These melamine-constructed terracotta-style flower pots aren't designed hold soil, but they might just plant seeds of culinary creativity, especially in outdoor settings. Fun. Versatile. Durable. They'll lend a stylish flourish to everything from BBQ to sides to desserts, and whatever you dream up. Talk about a fresh take on dining al fresco!

This 8 ounce, 3-1/2" diameter melamine-constructed pot is a perfect way to add a charming flair to your table. It will lend a fun and stylish flourish to just about anything you can imagine serving outside, from BBQ to coleslaw to fries, or even condiments. But unlike actual terracotta, these pots are easy-to-sanitize and darn near unbreakable. You can knock them around, you can knock them over, but you can't knock them out of service.
