There's nothing more glamorous than a tray of oysters on the rocks. But as soon as that ice starts melting, the glamor quickly fades. The solution? American Metalcraft's collection of Double-Wall Stainless Steel Seafood Trays. These trays are super-insulated to keep the cold where you need it: in the tray.

Introducing our 12-1/8" square seafood tray, where form meets function in the most stylish way. Crafted from two layers of brushed stainless steel, this tray offers a striking backdrop for your seafood offerings, making every dish look as good as it tastes. The generous size accommodates larger portions, perfect for impressing guests at high-end restaurants or buffets. Keep your seafood chilled and your presentation on point with this essential tool.
